

The Maija Golden Creative Writing Rebel Memorial Scholarship

Maija Golden was a free spirit with a smile that could light up a room. She was a true inspiration to her peers, who admired her for always caring for others and standing up for what she believed in. The Maija Golden Creative Writing Foundation has established a scholarship in Maija's memory to honor a graduating high school senior who excels in creative writing and stands out as a non-conformist regardless of overall GPA.

Please submit a writing sample, in any form or style, on the following topic. Submissions should be no longer than two pages.

What being a rebel means to me

Application Deadline: May 15, 2017 – Monday

Please email all responses to: majarebels@themajafund.org