Lex's Legacy

Alexea Grace Karpinski was born on October 7, 2003. Lex, as she was affectionately known, was a junior at Hunterdon Central Regional High School when she died suddenly on November 21, 2020. Lex was a beloved daughter, sister, granddaughter, cousin, niece, teammate, and friend. She was also an honor student, an aspiring D1 athlete, a Girl Scout, and a volunteer in many community and school organizations.

Lex played multiple sports her entire life, but none brought her more joy and passion than lacrosse. As a skilled goalie and dedicated all-around athlete, Lex was the starting goalie for both the Red Devil's Varsity lacrosse and field hockey teams. She also played for the Triple Threat lacrosse league and in 2019 was selected to play with the Legacy Global Sports USA team in the Czech Republic and Germany.

Once a shy and reserved young girl, Lex grew into confident leader on and off the field. She was a constant inspiration to those around her and demonstrated that through dedication and hard work, no dream was out of reach. Lex's kindness, encouragement, passion, and positive attitude made her an incredible mentor, teammate, and friend. She believed that every day was a chance to be greater than the day before. She believed this for herself, her friends, her teammates, and her coaches. It was important to Lex that she prove her worth and create a positive legacy.

The Iron Girl Project, Inc. was founded by Alexea's parents, Danielle and Mike, and her brother, Brayden, to honor her memory and continue her legacy. In a short 17 years, Lex touched the lives of many and was only at the beginning of her journey.
