Favorite Quote: "I wasn't real quick, and I wasn't real strong. Some guys will just take off and it's like, whoa. So I beat them with my mind and my fundamentals." ~ Larry Bird

Bryan Hardy is a coach's son, born in Flemington.

At a young age, Bryan's love for basketball blossomed as he and his father dissected the film, Hoosiers. A gym rat, Bryan would aid his father in running basketball tournaments before being old enough to make a name for himself in local travel and AAU leagues. He attended Hunterdon Central Regional High School and Montclair State University, majoring in English.

Bryan was a state-certified IAABO basketball official from 2010-2013. He coaches many youth basketball games in Somerset county, and runs multiple basketball, baseball, and soccer camps. His ultimate passion is coaching basketball, and his versatility and coaching experience will serve him well in leading the Freshmen team to a competitive and enjoyable athletic experience.
