Sondra Fechtner

Board of Education Member, 1981 - Present

Sandee has significant roots in and around Watchung Hills Regional High School. All of them are important and noteworthy. Sandee has been a member of the WHRHS Board of Education since 1981 - a significant indication of commitment to the school and community. Not only has Sandee been a member for 25+ years, she has been a highly respected member of the Board. It's hard to get re-elected eight times unless your community neighbors strongly support your attitude and efforts.

Sandee has also been instrumental in initiating and supporting key activities in the history of WHRHS. She played an instrumental role in developing both the National Honor Society at Watchung Hills as well as the Band Parents' group. Sandee is also a retired educator, having taught in North Plainfield after graduating from the University of Delaware.

As with other inductees to the Watchung Hills High Hall of Fame, Sandee's family is deeply rooted in the area. She lives in Watchung with her husband, Dr. Jerry Fechtner, a retired dentist. All graduates of WHRHS, their four sons went on to become medical doctors.

Sandee has also been on the Watchung Hills Board of Adjustment since 1981. Her dedication to community, her positive attitude and gracious style have made her an important part of Watchung Hills Regional High School's history and a welcome inductee to its Hall of Fame.
