

Student Announcements

Model UN: Congratulations to all Model UN delegates who participated in this past weekend's Philadelphia Model United Nations Conference for winning the Outstanding Delegation award! In addition to the school award, the following students won individual awards: Moha Trivedi: Honorable Mention in the Al-Jazeera Newsroom. Devan Sutaria: Best Position Paper in the 1952 Egyptian Revolution Command Council. Valeria Kovtun: Best Delegate in the World Health Organization. Jake Oleske: Best Delegate in the UN Environmental Programme. Shrishik Karthik: Honorable Mention in the UN Development Programme. Madeleine Barros: Best Delegate in the UN International Children's Fund. Ryan Rana: Most Improved in the UN Development Programme.

Neuroscience Club: This past weekend, members of the Neuroscience Club participated in the Brain Bee competition, hosted by Rutgers University. Congratulations to Lilah Marchese for qualifying for the regional competition. And a huge congratulations to Anmol Bhatia for winning first place at the Newark New Jersey Regional Brain Bee. He will now move on to the National Competition being held in April. Good luck Anmol!

Attention Juniors: NJGPA Testing Schedule for March 14 - 18.

Mary Poppins: Are you ready to see Bert and Mary fly? Tickets are now on sale for Watchung Hills spring musical Mary Poppins. Tickets can be purchased by scanning the QR code on the posters around the school.

Junior Prom: The Junior Prom will be held at the Pines Manor on April 29. Tickets will be on sale March 7 thru March 11 outside the South Cafeteria and in the Atrium during lunch. Members of the Junior GLC will be there all period to sell tickets and collect prom information. Tickets can also be purchased in room 121 from Mr. Ascolese on those same dates! Please have cash or check ready at time of purchase.

Final Four Summer Reading List 2022: The English department invites anyone in the school community to nominate a great book for the Summer Reading 2022 by March 11.

World Language Department Musical March Competition: Attention music lovers! Do you listen to all genres of music? Check out our world musical March matchup. Songs will go head-to-head each week and you'll vote for your favorite! Don't speak a world language? No worries! These sweet beats are all you need to understand. To vote, scan the QR codes on the screens in the learning commons, TV in the atrium or on one of the posters in a World Language classroom. You can also follow this link to vote.

Sports

Girls Basketball: Congratulations to Isabella Murray for scoring her 1000th career point Monday night! What an achievement, the Warriors are so proud of you achieving this monumental milestone!

Track: Congratulations to Jordan Hartley for qualifying for the Indoor High Jump event at Track Meet of Champions this past weekend!

Wrestling: Congratulations to Chris Baker, Christian Calvo and Harry Liu for advancing to the State Wrestling Championships in Atlantic City.

Baseball: Attention all those trying out for Baseball this spring in grades 9-12, there will be a mandatory preseason meeting on Thursday, March 3 immediately after school in room 128. Any questions, please see Coach Ascolese or Coach Tremarco.

PE Spring Sport Opt-Out: Applications for Spring Sport Opt-Out will close on March 18 at 2:40 pm.

Fundraisers

Gertrude Hawk Chocolates Sale: The BELIEV Club is selling Gertrude Hawk Chocolates through Friday, March 4. Proceeds will go to help the patients of The Children's Specialized Hospital in Mountainside. Anyone interested can see a member of the BELIEV Club, or use the following link to place an order: Gertrude Hawk Chocolates.

Bake-Off: The ALS Alliance is hosting a Bake-Off contest in the atrium on March 8 at 2:20 pm. Please come prepared to eat delicious brownies, cakes and cookies baked by your teachers and peers. Bring small bills, if possible. All proceeds will be donated to Project ALS, a nonprofit that funds research to cure ALS and other brain-based diseases.

Plant Sale: The Swim Team will hold a plant sale through March 15. Place your order here.

March Madness: Come out to the March Madness basketball game on Thursday, March 15 at 6:30 pm in gym 5/6. All proceeds will be donated to the Children's Specialized Hospital.

WH Face Masks and Magnets: Stop by the main office to purchase a WH face mask or magnet for $5.00 and support the WH PTO.

Talent Show: The ALS Alliance is hosting a talent show on April 14 at 7:00 pm in the PAC to raise money for Project ALS, a nonprofit that funds research to cure Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's disease) and other brain-based diseases. All types of acts are welcome if they are school appropriate! We will be reaching out to you to discuss your act. Please complete the Google form if you would like to perform.

