

Student Announcements

Late Buses: Starting Monday, March 28 the late buses will line up on Regional Drive. Students are to wait in the atrium for the late buses.

Before School Monday-Friday Study in the Learning Commons: The Learning Commons is open in the morning at 6:45 am to 7:25 am again for students who wish to study, finish homework and/or collaborate on projects.

World Language Department Musical March Competition: This is the last week to check out our world musical March matchup and vote for your favorite! Don't speak a world language? No worries! These sweet beats are all you need to understand. To vote, scan the QR codes on the screens in the learning commons, TV in the atrium, or on one of the posters in a World Language classroom. You can also follow this link to vote.

Attendance for Junior Prom: Please note that all students attending the junior prom, this includes not only juniors but any student attending the prom, must be in school for the entire day on April 29th. Late arrival, early dismissal, or absence on the 29th is not permitted.

Prom Dress Giveaway: Bernards High School Key Club is holding a Prom Dress Giveaway on Thursday, April 22 from 3-5 pm in the Community Room at Bernards HS.

Attention Seniors: New Scholarships have been added to the WHRHS Counseling webpage. Don't miss the opportunity to be recognized and earn money for college. Deadlines are approaching.

College Visits: A representative from the US Army Reserve will visit today, Thursday, March 31 during lunch in the School Counseling Suite. A representative from Marywood University will be in the Learning Commons during lunch today. Fairleigh Dickinson University will be in the Learning Commons tomorrow, Friday, April 1 during lunch. Please be sure to check the School Counseling webpage for the full schedule and the Naviance calendar.

Honors College/NJ STARS Meeting: Students interested in finding out more about the Honors College at RVCC are invited to a meeting hosted by the Honors College Director, Mr. Greg DeSanctis. The meeting will be during lunch on March 31 in the Main Office Conference Room. This is a great opportunity for interested students to learn about the academic and financial benefits available with the Honors College at RVCC. Information will also be available about the NJ STARS program. Please contact Mr. Toye in the School Counseling office if you have any questions.

Glow Dance: 9th and 10th graders are invited to the ASC sponsored Glow Dance on April 8 at 7:00 pm. Tickets can be purchased during lunch Wednesday, March 30 through Friday, April 1 outside the North Cafeteria and Gym 3/4.

Project ALS: Attention any student who thinks they may want to work in the fields of business, science, medicine, or pharmaceuticals. Normally, you would have to do hours of research to learn about amazing career pathways from experts in the field. However, this opportunity will not only help you answer college common application questions about the importance of learning beyond the classroom, but it may also even motivate you to find a summer internship. And all your inquiries regarding these four professions can be answered in our own South Auditorium in approximately one hour on March 31st from 2:30-3:30 pm. You can take the late bus if you are not staying for TEDx. The founders of Project ALS, Meredith, and Valerie Estess, who have just developed and received FDA approval for the first drug treatment for ALS, will speak about their specific knowledge and experience of the drug discovery/development process. Please see Ms. Goodson in room 279 if you have any questions.

Emotion Regulation Group Sessions: Emotion Regulation Group Sessions led by Rutgers Clinician, Ms. Jamie will meet every Monday, during lunch in Suite 23.

Attention Students: Starting Monday, April 4, Room 115 is available as a food-free lunchtime destination during Ramadan.

Camp Riverbend: Camp Riverbend is looking to fill multiple positions for their summer camp. Check out the flier for details.

Summer Jobs: Opportunities for summer employment at Long Hill Parks & Recreation. Check out the flier for details.
